The opera-house is being cleaned and renovated, in anticipation of a busy season of amusements this fall and winter.

The funeral of Miss Fannie Bryant took place at the family residence, on Newtown Pike, yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and was largely attended.

The ordinance compelling dealers in fresh fish to take out license is being rigidly enforced. The amount required to be paid by the ordinance is $5.

O. A. Gilman, of Paris, is in the city, for the purpose of buying up sheep for the Boston market. He is paying 45 cents for November and 45 cents for December shipments.

Rose Gilman, who gave bond in $100 for her appearance in the Fayette Circuit Court on Saturday, jumped the town before last. Her bondsman also left in hot pursuit.

Mr. C. F. Hamilton, who was arrested Saturday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was escorted down to Maysville Monday by Marshal Heffner, of that city.

WINCHESTER COUNTY COURT.—Major Hibler reports about 500 cattle on the market of all grades, and sold at prices ranging from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents. There were about 100 mules on the market, and sold at prices ranging from $60 to $100. Also a great many pig horses, all sold for prices ranging from $20 to $75.

Citizens along the line of the proposed new railroad from Richmond to Nicholasville are enthusiastic over the prospects of the early completion of the road. The distance is only twenty-one miles, the country through which it will pass is fine grain, grass and stock-raising capacity, and the people such as can well appreciate the advantage of the connection. The road is only a question of time.

Judge Royalty was called upon a few evenings ago by a young couple of African descent and requested to perform the marriage ceremony. The Judge complied with their request and sent them on their way rejoicing. The next morning bright and early the newly made bride appeared at his office and wanted the Judge to assist her in procuring a divorce, at the same time remarking that she was not going to live with that man.

HAMILTON.
D. J. T. Smivers and wife started on a visit West yesterday.

A. G. Morrison and Jas. Nowlan registered at the Straub House.

Rev. Dr. Laney and wife, of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jackson.

It required four double rigs beside numerous other vehicles to convey the Democrats to Millville yesterday.

A grand reception will be given by the Home Dramatic Thursday evening at which all members are cordially invited.

Mr. Robert Rogers and Miss Maria McElwaine were united in marriage at the bride's residence on Tenth street last night.

Quarterly review of the M. E. Sunday School next Sabbath morning at 9 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

The funeral of Albert Schellenback took place this morning from the residence on Front street. Services at St. Stephen's Church.

MAYSVILLE, KY.
The fall apple crop promises to be a fine one in this locality.

The Good Samaritans, a colored benevolent society, paraded the streets in full regalia last Saturday, headed by Hauck's band. They finished the day with a supper given at their church.

The canvass for Mayor has commenced. Sprigg Shackelford, the present incumbent, has already announced himself. J. Matt. Long and Eli F. Metcalfe are also talked of as possible candidates.

Add. Brown, formerly of the Central Hotel, attempted suicide while in a fit of temporary insanity Saturday night, by jumping out of a second-story window at his home. He now lies in a critical condition.

A party consisting of Messrs. Wm. Holmes, Frank McClanahan, John Thompson and Byron Reid, went up the river Saturday evening on the hunt for paw-paws, their destination being Rome, Ohio. The next morning while passing through a field near that place they were chased by a large buck deer, which overtook one of the party, Mr. Rudy, threw him down, stripped his clothes off, and made an ugly meal in his leg, and it was only by the united exertions of the whole party that he was rescued.

CYNTHIANA, KY.
Monday was County Court day and the largest crowd we ever saw on such an occasion assembled.

Richard Northcutt, an old man about eighty years of age, wandered from his home near Williamstown, in Grant County, Ky., Sept. 13th, and has not yet been found. His son, Wm. L. Northcutt, a dry goods merchant of this city, has offered a liberal reward to any one who will find him and take care of him or send any information by which he may be found.

The alleged discovery of petroleum near Antioch, in this county, may lead to something valuable yet. The hole has been dug to the depth of nine feet. Near the bottom it was sunk through a stratum of thin stones, the crevices between which seemed saturated with oil. When allowed to stand a while water collects in the basin with the oil on top, which may then be removed. It burns readily and brilliantly. A shaft is being sunk in the southern part of the county for silver and lead.

MIDDLETON, O.
Captain Robert Wilson, who is sick with pleurisy, is some better.

Cyrus McDonald, who has been in attendance at the M. P. Conference, in session at Mt. Blanchard, Ohio, returned home Monday.

day evening. He reports that Rev. W. R. Parsons is returned as pastor of the M. P. Church of this place.

The General Agent of the Home Insurance Company of Columbus, Ohio, was in town on Tuesday, adjusting the loss on Mrs. Barry's property, caused by the fire on Sunday night last. A satisfactory settlement was reached between the Company and the assured, and a draft given for payment of the amount of loss. This is about as prompt a settlement of fire loss as we have ever known.

SPRINGFIELD, O.
Donn Platt at City Hall to-night. Honor him with your presence.

It is Mayor Hallenbeck to-day and the authorities at Findlay have made it so. Attachments caught heavy.

Wm. Gregory was granted a divorce from his wife, Frances, on Tuesday. Grounds, adultery committed in Madison County in 1870.

Officer Jim Norton lodged at Spring street last night Charles Hamilton, George W. Baker and Henry Ross, who were found loitering about the levee.

The Merrat party appeared before His Honor on Tuesday and were heard through Daisy Russell and Lizzie Edwards, $2 and costs; "Boss" Merrat, $5 and costs.

From present indications John T. Norris will come out of the Findlay affair with flying colors. John's bearing for the past eighteen months, perhaps, is the straw that breaks the camel's back.

The C. C. & C. I. announce an excursion for the Paris of America and their famous Exposition for Saturday, September 27th. Train leaves at 8 o'clock a. m. Fare, round trip, $1.50.

The merchants who occupy rooms on Market, between High and Main, object greatly to the extension of the market upon their square. They favored our City Dads with a petition last night.

Mr. A. Lewis, of the North Side, has been confined to his home for the past two days and under the care of Dr. Russell. The doctor reports an improvement in his condition, which will be glad news for his many friends.

Doc Russell kept it mum, and although six days has expired it isn't too late to discuss the eleven-pound guest that Mr. John H. Schaefer and his estimable wife, of Yellow Springs street, have been entertaining for the above period. He is introduced as Clarence Summerfield Schaefer, and in a few words is a darling, a dumpting and lamb.

Several wells in the neighborhood of Washington street, between Plum and Mechanic, have been rendered useless by the seeping in of poisonous water, which flows through a crevice in the rocks that form the surface of the earth in that vicinity. The matter will be brought before Council, and, if it meets with no objection, the property-holders threaten the city with a suit.

Win Davis and his wife, Ann, appeared before Mayor Wallace on Tuesday afternoon. They were defended by F. M. Hagan, Esq. They were arraigned for petit larceny, and got the full extent, $40 and costs each and fifteen days in jail. Their daughter, Ida, was discharged. Florence, who did the light fingered business, will be sent to the Reform School. In addition to fine and imprisonment they were ordered to leave the city at the expiration of their term.

Word was sent here from Lawrenceville on Tuesday asking for officers to assist in the arrest of two transients, who were busily engaged ransacking the residence of E. C. Wingert. Officers Croft and Norton went out, and on nearing Lawrenceville found Wingert coming in with the men, who were being guided by the aid of a rifle. When taken to jail and searched $70 in the diminutive denominations were found on them. They are supposed to be Italian beggars. Neither of them can speak a word of English, and it was impossible to get names. They will be tried for house-breaking, and it is also said that the new tramp law will be brought to bear on them.

WEST COVINGTON.
Special election for Marshal to-day.

Harry Woodward and the Lang boys started for the Ohio side yesterday morning, and landed at Bromley.

Sunday School Convention.
National Association Press to the Star.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Sept. 24.—The twenty-first annual meeting of the Sunday School Convention held in connection with the Miami Baptist Association met to-day at the Baptist Church, Geo. B. Nichols, presiding. The attendance was large. On the platform of the Church were placed a number of plants and flowers, in the center of which was a rocky and a beautiful fountain giving the place a lively and picturesque appearance. At 9:30 a half hour was occupied in devotion, after which the opening exercises followed, appointing committees and reading letters from the schools. Sixteen schools reported an average attendance of 1,930 and 75 conversions.

The Committee on Nominations reported as follows:

President, George F. Davis, Jr., of Mount Auburn; Secretary, George E. Platts, of Cheviot; Treasurer, F. P. Baldwin, of Cincinnati, who were duly elected.

Miss Griffin, of Cincinnati, read a very excellent essay entitled, "Who Shall Be Teachers?"

Following this were remarks by Professor H. A. Howe, of Mount Lookout; Rev. S. W. Duncan, D.D., of Cincinnati, and John Reber, of Lockland.

In the afternoon session Miss Jennie Hudson, of Middletown, read an interesting essay on "Importance of Home Influence."

Rev. J. B. Greible, of Lockland, followed with remarks on the same subject.

QUESTION DEPARTMENT.
The following questions were asked and briefly answered:

"What prayer meetings should be held in connection with the school?"

Answered by J. H. Tangeman, of Lockland, and J. D. Randall, of Cincinnati.

"What helps to study of the lessons shall we use for the teachers and scholars?"

Answered by Charles Rhodes, of Granville, Ohio.

"What use ought to be made of the Sunday School collections?" Answered by W. A. Boynton, of Franklin, and Geo. F. Davis, Jr., of Mt. Auburn.

"Is it desirable to pursue Institute or normal works?" Answered by Dr. T. J. Penlee, of Cincinnati; Rev. A. C. Wheaton, of Chiviot, and Rev. W. E. Stevens, of Columbia.

F. A. Barnard, of Cincinnati, read a well prepared paper on "Outside Teaching," followed with remarks by Rev. A. M. Worcester, of Cincinnati.

The afternoon session closed by Miss Sarah T. Butler, of Franklin, giving a very interesting account of her work among the freedmen in the South last spring. She spoke for half an hour, giving a very clear, concise and complete account of her work.

The convention closed with the evening session. Addresses were delivered by Rev. M. Stone, D.D., of Lebanon, Geo. F. Davis, Jr., and Rev. A. S. Hubert, of Mt. Auburn.

James Hall, farmer, shot and killed Amos Kelly, lawyer, at Corsicana, Mo.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

(Special River Dispatches to the Star.)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24—11:22 A. M.—River 5 inches below water marks. Weather fair and cool. Light rain.

BROWNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 24—10:11 A. M.—River 3 feet 6 inches and stationary. Weather rainy. Wind west.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 24—10:00 A. M.—Kanawha River 1 foot 6 inches and falling slowly. Light rain this morning. Weather cloudy, with prospects of more rain. Wind west.

ON CITY, Pa., Sept. 24—8:24 A. M.—Allegheny River 5 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and rainy. Wind west.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24—11:58 A. M.—River 11 feet 5 inches below high-water mark. No arrivals other than the local boats. Departures for to-day: Centennial and Kehler for St. Louis. Heavy rain this morning.

Steamboat Movements.
The City of Portsmouth leaves at 4 p. m. daily for Chilo and way points.

The Cherokee is billed to leave Saturday for New Orleans.

The Granite State, fast, light draught, and elegant, will leave this evening for Pomeroy. The Pittsburgh will be the regular C. & O. R. R. packet leaving this evening for Huntington.

The W. N. Chancellor is advertised to leave Friday for Pittsburgh.

The Dora Cabler will arrive Friday, and return to Evansville Saturday.

Boat-Hands' Gossip.
Business good on the levee to-day.

Light rain last night. Weather clearing and cool this morning.

Harry Bruce and Geo. Dunbar resumed their duties on the Buckeye State this morning. Harry has been recuperating for two weeks, and is in fine health.

Two reshipped two hundred kegs of nails and four hundred bundles of iron on the mailboat for Louisville, and after discharging her cargo went up to Fulton this morning to lay up. Another steamer will probably be secured to take her place.

Capt. Wash. Kerr, accompanied by his family, came down this morning on the Buckeye State.

The Mary Ann, with ten empty barges, passed up at 10 o'clock this morning, en route from New Orleans to Pittsburgh.

Capt. J. D. Hegler had the Great Golden Eagle come down from Fulton this morning and landed at the Central Transit Wharf.

Boat, foot of Main street, where she is loading for New Orleans, in place of the Cherokee. She leaves Saturday. It is not yet decided who will go out in charge of her office.

The river continued to fall slowly at noon to-day with 4 feet 3 inches in the channel. Our dispatches this morning report rain at headwaters, which is pleasing intelligence.

Big Sandy Packet Company Notes.—The Pittsburgh is in and goes out in place of the Granite State to-night with her own crew. The Granite State will be down this evening and start back to Pomeroy to-morrow.

The Buckeye State will be the Railroad packet at 1 o'clock to-day, and she'll be followed to-morrow by the Clifton. Business with this line is rushing. The Telegraph, which came down last night and laid up, brought one hundred and twenty passengers and a fine trip of freight.

Local Inspectors Fisher and Deviney leave this evening for Ashland and will be back Sunday. They will inspect the boilers of the propeller Pike at Ashland, and then go to Portsmouth, where they'll inspect the propeller W. F. Gaylor and the ferryboat River City.

The Laura L. Davis is getting a good trip, and will positively leave this evening for the Lower Ohio River and St. Louis. She has good engagements below, including 1,100 boxes starch at Louisville.

Col. J. A. Blackmore and Captain Dan Risher are with us again. They arrived in the city by rail this morning from Pittsburgh.

The Gazette this morning, in speaking of the sale of the Iron Mountain and barges at Pittsburgh, on Monday, says "The Iron Mountain is a powerful towhatch with engines seventy-five inches in diameter and eight feet long." Evidently the Gazette is away off its kebab. Engines twenty-five inches in diameter and eighty feet stroke would make her powerful, but seventy-five inches and eight feet stroke is most too much power. P. S.—The statement in the Gazette was copied from yesterday's Times, and the Times got the same from the Enquirer the day before.

Capt. Dick Lieburn, of Memphis, and Captain J. B. Conway, of the Fanny Tatum, arrived by rail to-day from St. Louis. The Tatum will leave this week for St. Louis.

Commodore James S. Wise, Superintendent of the Lower Ohio & Memphis Packet Company, leaves by rail to-night for St. Louis on business connected with the line.

The Terrell Trial.
The trial of W. G. Terrell for the murder of Harvey Myers still occupies the attention of the Criminal Court at Burlington, Ky.

The testimony for the defense offered yesterday was about the same produced on previous trials.

Mr. Orin B. Hallam, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, arrived from Owensboro, Ky., last night and left this morning for Burlington to testify.

His evidence we suppose will have to be offered as rebuttal testimony since the prosecution has closed. Honnell, of Newport, one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution, has not testified at the present trial at all, although the Sheriff of Campbell County, has had an attachment for him for two days, and reports that he was unable to find him. Several men, however, will testify that they have seen him on the streets several times.

The funeral of Mr. John Eppinger, an ex-soldier and policeman, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his late home, on Bremen street, near Liberty. A large number of Old-fellows attended the funeral.

Manager R. E. J. Miles, of the Grand Opera-house, and Nick Roberts, of the Humpty Dumpty Troupe, have engaged the Cincinnati and Buffalo Base-ball Clubs to play ball in California next month.

Mrs. Capt. Geo. McCullum, Mrs. E. E. P. Hamilton, Miss Ella Hamilton and Mr. C. D. McCullum, of Louisville, are at the Hotel Emery.

Hon. Stanley Matthews and Mr. L. H. Pummil will speak Saturday night at Turner Hall, in Cumminsville.

A gold watch picked up on Fourth street, is awaiting an owner at the Commercial office.

One Fox or Six Bottles.
If you are suffering from a combination of liver and kidney diseases, and constipation, do not fail to use the celebrated Kidney-Wort. It is a dry compound as easily prepared as a cup of coffee, and in one package is as much medicine as can be bought in six bottles of other kinds.
